

TEACHER TIM

Teacher Tim is a self-taught guitarist. His repertoire consists of jazz, hip-hop, and classical. He has been a guest in several music podcasts and has done collab projects with young and talented singers. He shares his love for his craft through his short v-logs.

GUITAR

Music is good, not just for the heart, but also for the mind. Children who play music are observed to perform better in academics. ACTS' guitar classes offer beginner-level sessions that both children and adults will enjoy.
